CONTINUATION OF COMPLAINT:*Rogelio TOVAR-Hernandez*PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

On June 17, 2008, at approximately 5:00 A.M., a Remote Video Surveillance System operator advised Border Patrol Agents via service radio of several individuals running south in an area commonly known as "La Media." This area is approximately 4.5 miles east of the San Ysidro, California, Port of Entry.

Border Patrol Agent L. S. Dithrich, responded to the area and after a brief search observed 15 individuals running west. Agent Dithrich followed and caught up with the individuals just east of an area known as "Britannia." Due to the close proximity to the United States / Mexico International Boundary Fence, which is approximately 50 yards south, Agent Dithrich identified himself as a Border Patrol Agent and conducted an immigration inspection. All fifteen individuals, including one later identified as the defendant Rogelio TOVAR-Hernandez, admitted to being a citizen and national of Mexico illegally in the United States without any immigration documents that would allow him to legally enter or remain in the United States. All fifteen were arrested and transported to the Imperial Beach Border Patrol Station for processing.

Routine record checks of the defendant revealed a criminal and immigration history. The defendant's record was determined by a comparison of his criminal record and the defendant's current fingerprint card. Official immigration records of the Department of Homeland Security revealed the defendant was previously deported to Mexico on February 21, 2008 through Hidalgo, Texas. These same records show that the defendant has not applied for permission from the Attorney General of the United States or his designated successor, the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security, to return to the United States after being removed.
